

Planet Dog's Orbee-Tuff® Sport Toys >

Jock dogs and couch potato pooches alike will spin circles for these sporty toys. Made of Orbee-Tuff®, a non-toxic compound that stands up to even the most determined gnawing, the selection includes a mini-football, a baseball, tennis ball, soccer ball, even a golf ball. Get rid of dog slobber with a quick rinse, and when these durable toys finally do wear out, return them to Planet Dog for recycling. At fine pet shops throughout Oregon and Washington, $5-$12.

< Bodhi Toys

2006 is the Year of the Dog, and Bodhi is celebrating with a line-up of unique dog toys and accessories. The Lucky Carp, Cloud Ball or Bamboo stick are sure to help your pooch reach a state of doggie tranquility. Serve meals in a beautiful zen bowl, follow up with Year of the Dog Bodhi Fortune Cookies, then point your pooch in the direction of her Full Lotus Bed for a refreshing nap. Available at fine dog shops throughout Washington and Oregon, from $10 to $118. For store listings and more product information, visit www.bodhitoy.com.

EqueSport Dog Collars >

Is it a functional collar or a beautiful piece of jewelry? If it's from EqueSport, both descriptions apply. Hand-crafted from buttery English bridle leather, designs feature 14k gold, sterling silver, semi-precious stones and Swarovski crystal. Decked out in one of these artisan collars, your dog's walk will have a special bounce; his tail a proud wag. At www.equesport.com. $100-$170.

< GlobalPetFinder

Here's a high tech answer for the panicked owners of escape artist dogs. GlobalPetFinder is a wireless tracking device that slides onto your dog's collar and alerts you when wandering Waldo ventures beyond established boundaries. You program the boundaries and choose the alert method (cell phone, pda, computer). Works throughout the U.S. wherever wireless service is available. Doesn't harm your dog in any way. $349.99 at www.globalpetfinder.com.

< The Dog Lock Locking Leash

The Dog Lock by Ruff Wear enables you to grab a quick cup of coffee or take a much-needed bathroom break knowing that your dog is safely tethered and protected from theft. Strong nylon webbing is reinforced with steel cable to guard against cutting or chewing. One end of the leash is looped around a stationary object, the other is fitted comfortably around your dog's neck and securely locked. At better dog stores throughout Washington and Oregon. $29.95.

Bowie Wowie Cookie Dough >

Ah, the scent of freshly baked cookies. The average dog will be waiting expectantly, and Bowie Wowie Cookie Dough ensures that the treats coming out of the oven will be dog-safe as well as dog-licious. Each of the four flavors—Carob Chip, Peanut Butter, Oatmeal and Snickerdoodle—contains no sugars, salt, fillers, by-products or artificial flavors. Sure to elicit woofs of approval. Available at Denny's Pet World in Kirkland, or Gourmet Pets in LaGrande. $5.95-$7.95.

^ PAWS Greeting Cards

This elegant set of eight greeting cards features four photos of wild animals rehabilitated by PAWS and returned to their natural homes, and four photos of companion animals cared for and placed with loving families or individuals. Images are powerfully presented in black and white. Cards are blank, allowing the sender to compose appropriate messages. Available at www.paws.org. $12.

ChiWowWow Collection >

Hoodie sweatshirts, signature tees and couture jackets will have your canine fashionista drooling with delight. Made from vintage and recycled clothing (including the perennial favorite, pre-worn jeans), each design is unique—an important consideration for the pooch who dreads seeing his favorite sweater on the prissy Pomeranian across the street. Washable, for dogs 30 lbs. and under. Available at Railey's Leash & Treat and Urban Dogs, $40-$200.
